

collective time

Collective time

Collective collection has three different 61cm x 61cm tiles with three different designs. All possible to combine with each other. Intrigued by the body's circadian rhythm and its natural cycles of light and dark, our design team used wearable technology to track our daily routines. We recorded daily activity and sleep/wake cycles using our data as inspiration for the patterns in the collection

Design is balance

Juxtaposing our collective metrics with the cyclical progression of light as it fades into night, Collective Time reflects these shifts with soft gradients that fade boundaries of time
